Were you one of the lucky ones who were 'Celebrating the Best' at this year's Racing's Night of Champions? It was a night of many highlights, held in the Royal Randwick Ballroom of the Australian Turf Club with a large crowd both in attendance and also viewing the live coverage on Sky Thoroughbred Central.

It was a night to remember as a united industry celebrated the best of the best in our industry.

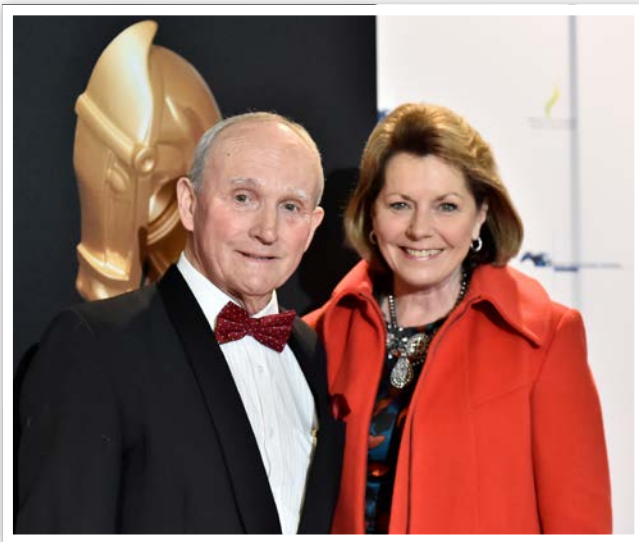

First Seal took the top honours on the night being named the Tab.com.au NSW Champion Horse of the Year as well as the NSW Three-Year-Old of the Year and Queen of the Autumn after a sensational season.

John Tapp OAM and Ken Callander were dual winners of the NSWROA Industry Recognition Award – an acknowledgement of the wonderful contributions these two gentlemen have given to our industry. Chris Waller took out the coveted Bart Cummings Medal for a record fifth time.

The Chantoozies returned as the feature entertainment for the night and once again quickly wowed the crowd and had everyone on the dance floor.

So let's take a walk down the red carpet and into the function room of 2015 Racing's Night of Champions.
