Held in the Royal Randwick Ballroom of the Australian Turf Club and with a large crowd both in attendance and also viewing via the live coverage on Sky Thoroughbred Central, it was, once again, a night to remember as we celebrated the best of the best in our industry at Racing's Night of Champions.

Winx took the top honours on the night being named the Tab.com.au NSW Champion Horse of the Year as well as the NSW Miler of the Year and the NSW Middle-distance Horse of the Year after another sensational season.

Chris Waller took out the coveted Bart Cummings Medal for a record seventh time.

The NSWROA Committee acknowledged the incredible feat of Chautauqua in winning his third consecutive Group 1 T J Smith Stakes by presenting his connections with the NSWROA Industry Recognition Award. Chautauqua is the first equine to ever receive this award.

The Beatels, as the feature entertainment for the night, had guests quickly heading to the dance floor with their amazing renditions of the songs from the best band of all time.

So, let's take a walk down the red carpet and into the function room of 2017 Racing's Night of Champions.
