It was, once again, a night to remember as we celebrated the best of the best in our industry at Racing's Night of Champions in the Royal Randwick Ballroom of the Australian Turf Club with a large crowd both in attendance and also viewing via the live coverage on Sky Thoroughbred Central.

Mighty mare Winx again took the top honours on the night being named the TAB NSW Champion Horse of the Year as well as the NSW Middle Distance Horse of the Year after yet another sensational season.

And premier trainer Chris Waller took out the coveted Bart Cummings Medal for a record eighth time.

The NSWROA Committee acknowledged the wonderful service to the industry and the Association, by former NSWROA President and Life Member Noel Bracks, presenting his family with the NSWROA Industry Recognition Award. The award was posthumously accepted by Noel's son Patrick as Noel sadly passed away in July.

The wonderful Harrison Craig delighted the crowd with his feature performance on the night.

So let's take a walk down the red carpet and into the ballroom of 2018 Racing's Night of Champions.

Racing's Night of Champions is the flagship event of the NSW Racehorse Owners Association. To view more information regarding this year's event, visit the NSWROA website www.nswroa.com.au RNSW
