NSWROA President Mr Stephen van Eyk stated “It goes without saying that I am delighted that NSWROA has finally been recognised for its years of hard work and independence in the NSW Racing Industry”.

Mr van Eyk said that the NSWROA board members were looking forward to the tasks of providing the industry with thought leadership, ensuring that racing is led by a skilful and independent board and representing the interests of all owners in NSW.

RACING'S NIGHT OF CHAMPIONS 2008

With a headline act like Human Nature it is no wonder that tickets for this year's Racing Night of Champions have been selling fast.

In what will surely be the biggest event in our Association's history, the night is in aid of Redkite – Australia's leading cancer support charity who provide valuable assistance to children with cancer and their families.

This prestigious charity evening, to be held at The Pavilion, Royal Randwick Racecourse on Thursday 14 August 2008, will feature the 2008 NSW Racing Awards including Champion Horse of the Year, Trainer of the Year, Jockey of the Year and the inaugural NSWROA Recognition Award.

NSWROA WORKS HARD TO ENSURE INDEPENDENT BOARD

Many members have expressed concern regarding recent press reports that the process for selection of the board of Racing NSW will not be independent.

I can assure members that your Board has spoken to all participants engaged in the selection panel, and expressed our absolute commitment to an independent process and outcome.

The Minister for Gaming and Racing, the Hon. Graham West MP, has also expressed his commitment to ensuring that the Board has highly skilled, independent members who are committed to the future of the industry as a whole – not just part of the industry.

If he feels this has not been achieved he has stated he will not accept the outcome.

RACE FIELDS LEGISLATION

The race fields legislation is designed to ensure that all businesses making use of the racing product to generate income adequately compensate industry participants for it's use.

There has been a huge leakage of betting turnover towards parts of the industry that do not pay adequate compensation and therefore rob owners of prizemoney as well as other participants of earnings.

It can't be allowed to continue unchecked.

I will report further on progress on this issue in coming months.
