AUSTRALIAN TURF CLUB

Established in 1860, Royal Randwick boasts one of the best racing surfaces in the world. Modern amenities, old-world charm and elegant dining options abound at "Headquarters".

The course is situated only five kilometres from the heart of the city and may be reached by public transport or private vehicle. Access to the infield carpark which includes a drop-off point is via High Street, off Anzac Parade. Bus services leave regularly from Central railway station. Please see our website for information relating to Carnival Transport services with special carnival services departing from nearby Chalmers Street.

Warwick Farm Racecourse, the track renowned for its picnic atmosphere, is situated on the Hume Highway approximately 30 kilometres from Sydney. The course features the JHB Carr Stand, and an array of dining and betting facilities including appealing outdoor dining.

Patrons may travel to the course by car or rail services to Warwick Farm station. Access by road is either via the M5 Tollway or Hume Highway to the Members' centre course and No. 2 carparks, or into the St Leger carpark area via Governor Macquarie Drive.

Rosehill Gardens, the home of the world renowned AAMI Golden Slipper, the world's richest race for two-year-olds, offers unrivalled viewing for racegoers. The stands have excellent amenities, including bars, restaurants and consummate betting facilities overlooking an immaculately landscaped racecourse. It also boasts a fully covered outdoor betting area and first-class corporate entertaining facilities.

Situated just 25 minutes to the burgeoning west of Sydney's heart, Rosehill Gardens is linked by Victoria Road, the M4 and Parramatta Road. It can be reached by car, train (with trains running directly to the course at Rosehill station), or by the Rivercat service, which takes racegoers from Circular Quay and other city locations to Parramatta via Sydney Harbour and Parramatta River.

A user-friendly course situated just 11 kilometres from the city, Canterbury Park offers Sydney racegoers their closest view of explosive thoroughbred action plus a fully enclosed air-conditioned indoor betting area.

The major mid-week city based racing venue and the home of Sydney night racing, Canterbury Park is close to Canterbury railway station, on a number of major bus routes and offers free on site parking.
